Dear Parent / Carer

Christingle Service- Saxmundham Free School 30 November 5pm

We will be holding our annual Christingle service this year in support of the Children's Society. If you and your son / daughter would like to join us we would be delighted to see you on Thursday the 30 November 2017 at 5pm. As you may know St.John's Church is undergoing some renovation work so we will not be able to use the Church this year but the Rev. Andy Walton has kindly agreed to hold the service in our School Hall.

This was a lovely family event last year and a very nice way to start the festive season. The service will last about 45 minutes and the staff and student choir will be singing. We will light traditional Christingles made by the Y7 students and a selection of students will be performing or reading.

I look forward to welcoming you and your family to the School for this family service.

Yours sincerely

Mr D Lees
Headteacher
